

Miscellaneous links related to aviation education provided by Dan Caron
Dan Caron Consulting

- Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum:
<http://howthingsfly.si.edu/>
  - Has some great curriculum suggestions and activities for kids of all grades.
- NASA:
<http://www.nasa.gov/audience/foreducators/index.html>
  - Has some great curriculum suggestions and activities for kids of all grades.
- FAA:
http://www.faa.gov/education/educator\_resources/
  - Has some great curriculum suggestions and activities for kids of all grades.
- NH Aviation Historical Museum:
<http://www.nhahs.org/>
  - A great place for a field trip.
- Real World Design Challenge:
<http://www.realworlddesignchallenge.org/>
  - For High School students to incorporate STEM subjects in the aviation field.
- AOPA brochure on What is GA:
http://www.aopa.org/info/what\_ga.pdf
  - An explanation about what general aviation is.
- AvKids:
<http://ww35.avkids.com/>
  - Has some explanations of the forces of flight and other aviation concepts (need to get past the ads)
- Experimental Aircraft Association Young Eagles Program:
<http://www.young eagles.org/>
  - Free flights for school-aged kids.
- Experimental Aircraft Association Air Academy:
<http://www.young eagles.org/programs/airacademy/>
  - Aviation camps for kids of all ages.
- International Aviation Art Contest:
<http://www.nasao.org/TEST/Center/InternationalAviationArtContest.aspx>
  - Aviation drawing contest for school-aged kids w/ aviation-themed prizes for the top 3 awardees in each age category. NHDOT/Bureau of Aeronautics runs this for the state of New Hampshire.